

Report on Induction Ceremony

Maj Gen Yashpal Singh Ahlawat graces 19th Induction Ceremony and Annual Prize Distribution at Pestle Weed College of Information and Technology (PWCIT)

Date 6th May 2024-Leading when it matters! The evergreen campus of the renowned 'Pestle Weed College of Information Technology, Dehradun' witnessed its 19th Induction Ceremony and Annual Prize Distribution. The Chief Guest on the occasion was Major General Yashpal Singh Ahlawat AVSM, YSM, SM, MGGS Operations Northern Command, an alumnus of Children's Academy 1985 batch, accompanied by his wife Mrs. Renu an academician with nearly 3 decades of experience.

Welcoming the Chief Guest Maj Gen Yashpal Singh Ahlawat AVSM, YSM, SM, Dr. Prem Kashyap Chairman, Pestle Weed College of Information Technology, Dehradun expressed his joy and pride in having his student of yesteryears come back as an illustriously decorated Army Officer.

The ceremony began with the distribution of academic excellence awards to the students from the hands of Chief Guest. The evening brought with it moments of pride of accomplishment, zeal for surpassing excellence, zest for continued endeavours and reverence for the Alma Mater. The Chief Guest and all the present dignitaries were overwhelmed with the majestic sight of the Induction Ceremony.

The cultural programme was a visual treat to the eyes, a kaleidoscope of colours depicting the rich diversity through the dances from across the length and breadth of our country. The college girls put up a divinely graceful garba dance where beauty, strength & femininity intertwined to leave the audience mesmerized, the dances appeared as if celestial muses and melody had taken over the sylvan setting of the school open air amphitheater 'The Throbbing Stone'. The grand finale of the evening was a Diya dance put up by the students. It was a scintillating end to the cultural extravaganza. A cosmic and a vibrant bonanza was put up and the Guests were left completely enthralled.

Major General Yashpal Singh Ahlawat applauded the versatility of the institution. He urged the students to grasp all opportunities provided by the college as each corner of campus would hold a story, He also complimented the students for putting up for scintillating and grand show and congratulated the teachers for their splendid efforts in presenting such an extensive and illustrious program.

The event concluded successfully with the vote of thanks by the Principal Ma'am Dr. Anita Verma.

